“Coronavirus Cases:” Worldometer,

www.worldometers.info/coronavirus/?utm_campaign=homeAdvegas1?

This source provided information about the spread of COVID-19 around the world.

More specifically, this “chart” gave the number of coronavirus cases, recoveries, and deaths for each country. This information aided in my analysis of the virus and its global impact. I am able to incorporate this into my mind-map as to why the severity, such as the number of deaths, is higher in the United States compared to other countries.

Jennifer B. Nuzzo, DrPH. “Suboptimal US Response to COVID-19 Despite Robust Capabilities and Resources.” JAMA, JAMA Network, 13 Oct. 2020, jamanetwork.com/journals/jama/fullarticle/2770891.

This source provided information about the U.S response to COVID-19. Author Jenifer B. Nuzzo explains why the U.S government’s response to the virus faltered even in though the country could have eased the spread with the its various resources and capabilities.

This information aided in my analysis of comparing and contrasting COVID-19 in the U.S to other first world countries. I am able to incorporate this into my argumentative essay in which I present my claim of why other countries are containing the virus better than the U.S.

Partridge-Hicks, Sophie. "5 Countries That Are Getting COVID-19 Responses Right." Global Citizen, Global Citizen, 11 Sept. 2020, www.globalcitizen.org/en/content/countries-with-best-covid-responses/.

This source provided an analysis of countries who have been successful in responding to the COVID-19 outbreak. Author Partridge-Hicks explains how and why these specific countries have had more effective responses to the virus compared to that of other countries. This information aided in my analysis of comparing and contrasting the U.S. response to COVID-19 to that of other countries. I am able to incorporate this into my argumentative essay in which I present my claim of why other countries are containing the virus better than the U.S.

"Personal and Social Activities." Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, www.cdc.gov/coronavirus/2019-ncov/daily-life-coping/personal-social-activities.html.

This source explained the CDC COVID-19 recommendations and guidelines for social activities. It presented ways that people can hold social gatherings, but also be safe in the process to prevent the spread of COVID-19. This information aided in my analysis of the if and how CDC guidelines are being properly enforced in the U.S. I am able to incorporate this into my mind-map to further explain how the disregard for COVID-19 restrictions have caused cases and deaths to skyrocket in the U.S.

Sargent, Greg. "Opinion | More Americans Say the U.S. Is Blowing It on Coronavirus. Trump Voters Disagree." The Washington Post, WP Company, 4 Aug. 2020, www.washingtonpost.com/opinions/2020/08/03/more-americans-say-us-is-blowing-it-coronavirus-trump-voters-disagree/.

This source provided information about the U.S. slow and ineffective response to COVID-19. Author Sargent Greg also analyzes the varying viewpoints of Americans on their country's response to the virus. This information aided in my analysis of comparing and contrasting COVID-19 in the U.S. to other first world countries. I am able to incorporate this into my argumentative essay in which I present my claim of why other countries are containing the virus better than the U.S.

Weizent. "China's Recovery Isn't as Rosy as It Appears - but There's Still 'Room for Optimism'." CNBC, CNBC, 9 Oct. 2020, www.cnbc.com/2020/10/09/china-economic-recovery-after-covid-19-pandemic-golden-week-activities.html#:~:text=After shutting down most of,3.2% in the second quarter.

This article provided information on China's response to the COVID-19 outbreak. From how the country mishandled the virus in the beginning months of its spread, to how the government flattened the COVID-19 curve, this source thoroughly analyzed each aspect of China's effective plans against COVID-19. This information aided in my analysis of comparing and contrasting COVID-19 in the U.S. to that of China. I am able to incorporate this into my mind-map as to why the spread of the virus is so severe in the United States.

Yong, Story by Ed. "How the Pandemic Defeated America." The Atlantic, Atlantic Media Company, 6 Aug. 2020, www.theatlantic.com/magazine/archive/2020/09/coronavirus-american-failure/614191/.

This source provided information about the U.S response to COVID-19. More specifically, this source discusses the impact of the virus on all fronts of the country.

This information aided in my analysis of comparing and contrasting COVID-19 in the U.S to other first world countries. I am able to incorporate this into my mind-map as to why the spread of the virus is so severe in the United States.
